NOW on this _____ day of December 1996, this matter comes on before the Honorable Larry McClain, Administrative Judge of the Tenth Judicial District, for an order to the Clerk of the District Court of Johnson County, Kansas, to destroy certain exhibits pursuant to Kansas Supreme Court Rule 108.

The exhibit consists of a variety of electronic typewriters, attachments and documents belonging to Darrell W. Briske, which were placed in the custody and control of the Clerk by Judge Cleaver, Division 3, criminal court case captioned, State of Kansas vs. Briske, K-65898. The defendant and his advisory Attorney, J. Charles Droege were given notice by certified mail that unless the property was claimed and retrieved by November 11, 1996, it would be destroyed.

The Court is duly informed by Ramona Allenbrand, Clerk of the District Court, that the notice sent by certified mail to Darrell W. Briske at the last address known to the Clerk, 951 Warwick Avenue, Thousand Oaks, CA, 91360, has been returned by the post office marked undeliverable. The Clerk further informs the Court that Attorney J. Charles Droege has verbally informed her that he does not desire to take custody of the property.

IT IS THEREFORE BY THE COURT ORDERED that the Clerk of the District Court proceed forthwith to destroy the property in a manner consistent with Kansas Supreme Court Rule 108 and make due return of the execution of this Order.
