Provisional appointments are for representation at 1st and 2nd appearances; defendant is determined to be ineligible for court-appointed counsel; or otherwise retains private counsel prior to plea, diversion, dismissal, court trial, jury trial, or court hearing on motion.

Exceptional or other cases must have court order attached stating amount to be paid – THIS MUST BE SIGNED BY THE JUDGE IN THE CASE.

Failure to appear (FTA) – considered a dismissal; amount paid determined by type of appointment, type of case, and case status at time of FTA.

You must check case type on voucher. If no case type is checked, the voucher will be returned, and payment will be delayed.
